DECLARATION OF DEVIN CHEN IN SUPPORT OF DEFENDANTS'
BRIEF IN RESPONSE TO THE COURT'S QUESTIONS
REGARDING PRESERVATION OF CHAT MESSAGES

Judge: Hon. James Donato

DECLARATION OF DEVIN CHEN

I, Devin Chen (Zhi Chen), declare as follows:

1. I am a backend engineer on the Chat Backend team at Google. I make this declaration based on personal knowledge and per discussion with the Chat Admin team. If called as a witness, I could testify to the best of my knowledge to the facts stated herein.
2. The function of my team at Google is to develop and improve the Google Chat product. My responsibilities include feature development for the Chat backend.
3. I understand that the Court has asked Google to respond to the following question:
  - How many recipients of the litigation hold notice in this case personally elected to turn the history to “on” for any of their Google Chats?
    - On what dates did the hold notice recipients do so?
    - If they later turned the chat history back to “off,” when did they do that?
4. Google does not ordinarily maintain the information to answer this question for any meaningful time period. Google does maintain a system-wide backend log spanning certain Google products, with restricted security access for a rolling period of 55 days only. This log is designed to assist in addressing bugs in Google Chat from the backend and includes limited data about changes to Google Chat history settings. The data in that log, however, would not show whether or when an employee changed his or her chat history settings for a particular conversation before the rolling 55-day window—i.e., if an employee had toggled the “history on” setting prior to the 55-day window, the log would not show that activity.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on this 24th day of January, 2023, in Sunnyvale, California.
